

Dear Parents

The remaining final exams of classes IX and XI will be conducted as per schedule.

Buses will ply as usual. In case of any disruption in the case of private vans and coaches, Parents are requested to drop their wards to school and pick them up personally, using either the metro or personal means of transportation.

Regards

Principal