

They are baffled by the work done by Gambhir in his five months as east Delhi MP," said Gaurav Arora, Gambhir's personal secretary. HTC and involving story-telling, in view of the large number of children who visit here daily." The park, which was created in February 2019, has become a cash-strapped SDMC. It features replicas of the 'seven wonders of the world.' The Eiffel Tower, Christ the Redeemer, the Statue of Liberty, Roman Colosseum, Waste (WLE) plant to deal with the park's horticulture waste and organic waste that will be produced at a restaurant planned here, is also in the off-

ing. because it was just a green zone earlier, but now, for the purpose of the laser show and safety of visitors, we'll get them removed," the senior official said requesting not to be named.

pace notes

Annual Day at Sanskriti School, Chanakyapuri

Sanskriti School, Chanakyapuri recently celebrated their Annual Day. Students of Grades VI and VII, under the guidance of their teachers, performed a spectacular play based on Lewis Carroll's 'The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe'. The programme began with a beautiful song, based on the play, sung by young Sanskritians. Principal Richa Agnihotri welcomed the august gathering comprising of distinguished guests and parents. The school choir commenced the grandeur with their symphony followed by the lighting of the lamp.

School Head Giri presented the Annual Report which highlighted the excellent growth and accomplishments made by the school. The students' theatrical skills won the appreciation of one and all. The incredibly talented Sanskritians enthralled the audience with a series of mesmerising dance performances. Many spectators even compared the show with those performed at the Kingdom of Dreams. The show concluded with the National Anthem.

Students of Sanskriti School, Chanakyapuri, performing at the Annual Day.

The hard work and sincere efforts of the students, teachers as well as the school management bore fruit and made the show a huge success.

Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan's Mehta Vidyalaya, KG Marg celebrated its 61st Annual Day. The Chief Guest was His Excellency, Nilamber Acharya, the Ambassador of Nepal in India and accompanying him was Hom Prasad Luitel, Education Counsellor of Embassy of Nepal. The Chief Guest congratulated the school for its impressive achievements and also paid his tribute to the founder of Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, Kulapati K.M. Munshi. Principal Dr. Anju Tandon read out the Annual Report and shared with great pride the news about the school's 194th All-India ranking. Meritorious students were awarded prizes by the Chief Guest to acknowledge their academic and co-curricular achievements. Arti Chopra teacher PGT, Principal, Dr. Anju Tandon, Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan with Chief Guest.

Chemistry was conferred 'Saraswati Samman' for completing 25 years of dedicated service. The occasion saw the release of the annual school magazine 'Bhav-Idya'. The highlight of the evening was the cultural programme 'Mohan Se Mahatma' - a play depicting the journey of Gandhiji's life. The function concluded with the rendition of the National Anthem.

Air Force Bal Bharati School, Lodhi Road organized the Annual Fine Art Exhibition. The Honourable Air Marshal B. P. Bapat VSM Air Officer-in-charge Administration was the Chief Guest whose presence was a source of inspiration for all. The creativity and innovation of the students was appreciated by all the esteemed guests. All the enthusiasts got a splendid opportunity to showcase their talent by creating extraordinary exhibits in the form of sculpted forms, canvasses, batik work and paintings.

New Delhi

